

Buonumori Angelo was born in Perugia in 1946.

At seventeen he began to attend the Accademia di Belle Arti in Perugia, his hometown.

He had, since the beginning, a strong curiosity toward what could be considered , in those years, emerging disciplines such as visual design and graphic design .

He covers , therefore, two parallel art track: that of figurative research and the art direction advertising .

In 1966 he began working at the Artistic Department of Perugia under the guide of Gianni Angelini tha was one of the most important advertising director in Italy.

In 1974 he held his first solo exhibition, together with his friend and colleague Gianni Sani , in the gallery "Il Perugino" in Perugia .

In 1975 , in Genoa , took first place in the second edition of the Prize "Cristoforo Colombo" which sees Italian and American artists .

In 1976 he exhibited for his second solo exhibition in the halls of the " Grifo e Leone" of the Palazzo Comunale of Perugia.

In 1977 he was invited to exhibit in Genoa at the Palazzo Cattaneo Adorno .

In 2006 she returned to exhibit at the Rocca Paolina in Perugia , in the "Sale della Cannoniera" (Halls of the Gunship), with an exhibition titled " Acronyms portraits ."

In 2007 his works were exhibited in the exhibition "Umbria, terra di Maestri" (Umbria, land of Masters) in Spello (PG ), Villa Fidelia and in collective exhibition "Amori imperfetti" (Imperfect loves) at the Jerico Gallery in Perugia.

In 2008 he held a solo exhibition, "E/Affetti personali", at the cultural club "l'Officina" in Perugia .

In 2013 he held a solo exhibition at the Artemisia Gallery of Perugia, that is a preview of the exhibition "Profili InVersi" (curated by Massimiliano Bisazza), at the Statuto 13 Gallery in Milan, Brera District.

In 2013, participates in the collective exhibition for the Bicentennial of the birth of Giuseppe Verdi at LaboExpo Gallery in Milan.

In terms of the design he has been over the years Creative Director of several major international brands in the fashion industry .

He later built up his own design agency and communication.

Many Italian companies from various sectors took advantage of his creativity and many brands on the market are the result of his design.

He teaches "Communication Design" and "Processing Digital Graphics" at the Master's Degree in Advertising Techniques (Compu) at the University for Foreigners of Perugia.

Angelo Buonomori lives and works in Perugia.