

HONG TSUN CHAN

Born 1985 in Hong Kong, currently lives and works in Toronto, Canada.

Chan received his Bachelors of Applied Arts from Sheridan College and is currently teaching at OCAD University, Seneca College, and Algonquin College in Canada.

Chan's paintings focus on the quiet moments in reflection, solitude, and mediation. We encounter his paintings immersed in a silence that's almost palpable. In his recent series titled 'Ecstasy', contemporary-looking individuals seem to be in the grips of encounters with the divine, drawing back to his inspiration of Bernini and the Italian Renaissance.

His work has been featured by Hi-Fructose Magazine, Love Art Fair (Affordable Art Fair Toronto), Booooooom, and Ming Pao Newspaper.
