

MEL BRIGG

SOUTH AFRICAN BORN AUSTRALIAN ARTIST

Expansive in their vision, Mel Briggs paintings are simple and skilled in application. Particularly of note are his beautiful paintings of beaches and landscapes with two or three people to give scale. His skies are famous for the moods they depict.

Born in 1950 in South Africa, Mel is self taught and started to paint full time in 1979. He is an artist whose career spans four decades and several continents with works in major collections all over the world.
