

Aico Tsumori is a Japanese artist who exhibits her works in Hong Kong for the first time. You can find in her works many Japanese elements like the patterns and poses. She combined these elements with her own imagination, and uses the works as a way to speak for her. She uses also strong color combinations to make her works like colorful drawings.

- 2015 Award the Kikuchi Biennale IV
- 2014 Exhibition Gallery Sokyo (Kyoto)
Solo Exhibition Gallery Meguro tougei kan (Mie)
- 2013 Solo Exhibition Gallery Utsuwa kan (Kyoto)
Shigaraki Ceramic Cultural Park
Exhibition-20years of Artist in Residence Program
- 2012 Solo Exhibition Gallery Keihuu (Kyoto)
Solo Exhibition SAVOIR VIVRE (Tokyo)
- 2011 Solo Exhibition Gallery Shigaraki Ceramic Cultural Park
- 2008 Kyoto Takashimaya Art Gallery
- 2007 Award the Tokoname City 'Cyozasyou Ceramics Art Competition
- 2006 Award the Toki City'Oribe no Kokoro Ceramics Competition' Bronze prize
- 2003 Award the Female Ceramic Art
- 2002 Graduated from Kyoto City University of Arts
- 1979 Born in Shiga-pref, Japan