In the nature of things, which was set up in a systematic way rules complete and unity among themselves. Nature has created a balance which is reflected in the form of a natural phenomenon. I want to present the concept through plane of light and shade which represented a matter of shape causing aesthetics and beauty as a resulted of Integration Plane of light and shade harmoniously.