

Lau Chin Hung 劉展鴻
Born in HONG KONG in 1953

LAU Chin Hung grew up in Hong Kong and received a scholarship to study Fine Arts in France in 1977. In 1982, he graduated from l'Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Beaux - Arts - Paris, majoring in oil painting. In 1986 he obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree in Plastic Arts from l'Université Paris I - Pantheon - Sorbonne. He has held solo exhibitions in Europe, Taipei and Hong Kong. His works are particularly popular with collectors and he recently has enjoyed much success at Sotheby's and Christie's. His iconic "floating cabbage in the sky" motif is similar to the idea of "the beginning of chaos" in Chinese Taoist belief. It also represents the artist's own view of his fundamental cultural roots after residing overseas for over three decades. The cabbage reflects the unique historical characteristics and existence of Hong Kong culture. In its unexpected positionings in his paintings, the cabbage introduces the idea of "dream vs. non-dream", "reality vs. surreality" and the potentiality of living things as carried by the cabbage symbol.
