

Artist Biography

Naida Ginnane has worked in Visual Arts education for the past 30 years. Born in Australia, she completed a B.Ed Art in 1985 and M. Ed in 2004.

Teaching a range of techniques including photography, painting, drawing, sculpture and digital imagery, Naida's students have won state Art/ Design awards and graduated to become successful artists in their own right.

Now living in Singapore, Naida works in mainly digital photography, using a range of cameras, lenses and software.

Singapore Contemporary is Naida's inaugural exhibition. This work draws attention to the plight of the earth using the juxtaposition of beauty and ugliness found in creation during these times of unprecedented environmental destruction.
