

Jung-Wan, Chae

Jung-Wan Chae is an artist based in South Korea. He graduated from Kaywon University of Art & Design in animation. He has worked as film maker on numerous television series and now dedicates himself principally to short animated films, illustration and painting. His works fall into two main divisions, the "I" and the "You". In the "I" division the artist privileges personal introspection, creating works by way of self-portraits of one's own interiority. In the "You" division the artist grapples with the problems of society with references to current events and contemporary reality.
