

Gao Yi, Shaanxi people, independent Chinese character artist. Graduated from Nanjing Institute of Arts calligraphy and seal cutting professional. Now settled in Shanghai. Currently, he is a member of China National Painting and Calligraphy Institute and Calligraphers Association, Calligraphy Research Institute of Jiangsu Province, an executive director of Chinese anacoluthia calligraphy association. For years he studied and created the diversity of the art form of Chinese characters, and break through the traditional calligraphy. Has a profound ideological and forward-looking. His works many times to participate in domestic and foreign large painting and calligraphy exhibition and won the prize. (can be checked at Shanghai M50, A solo exhibition at Tianzi Fang, shanghai art fair, Group Exhibitions of Venice biennial, Britain eight-thousand-mile art show, and many newspapers and magazines). To participate in the auction company's auction more, for example XiLinYingShe Auction, favored by people at home and abroad. Collected by collectors in Germany, Israel, Singapore, Japan, USA, France and Malaysia. The artist is the creator have their own ideas, Works very attractive to people's attention. For the use of color is wonderful that give the viewer an almost religious artistic conception. His works seems to be a department of philosophy classics, not only contains the essence of traditional Chinese philosophy, but also learn from the integration of Western philosophy.

The works contains the elements of Chinese ink painting freehand brushwork in traditional Chinese style and techniques, and combined with the calligraphy, simple and primitive, and a breakthrough in color and content, and works present a strong visual impact, form a brand-new visual experience.