

Su Xing is a member of China Lacquer Painting Society and China Artists Association (CAA), deputy chairman of Guangzhou Artists Association (GAA), director of the Association's Lacquer Painting Art Committee, GAA, chairman of Lingnan Lacquer Painting Society, China 2nd-Grade Artist, and guest professor of Guangzhou Academy of Fine Arts.

Biography

- 1986 Founded "Little Grass Studio" with 7 other artists, whose unique modern decorative paintings made a hit in France, Japan, Singapore, Shenzhen China and Guangzhou China.
- 2006 Approved by China Protocol Department, the artwork of Mr.Su- Long Distance Separates No Bosom Friends was given to the King of Sweden as official present, who came to Guangzhou by East Indiaman Gotheborg.
- 2009 Mr. Su organized "Lingnan Lacquer Painting World Exhibition Tour", it is the first time the Lingnan lacquer painting unveiled its beauty to the world.
- 2010 Painter of Guangzhou City God Temple murals
- 2012 Was invited to held personal exhibition in New York
- 2014 "Starry Lacquer Painting - Qiao Shi Guang • Su Xing Lacquer Painting Joint Exhibition", "Live For Today-Su Xing Lacquer Painting Exhibition";
Co-created lacquer Pipa "Tang Yun" with Mr. Fang Jinlong, master of traditional Chinese music, which is collected by National Center for the Performing Arts;
Was invited to be the Cultural Ambassador of the Sixth New Zealand Reading Festival and held the "Lacquer Painting China - Su Xing New Zealand Lacquer Painting Exhibition" in Auckland and Wellington.