

Xiao-Hua

I do stitching work, but i'm not a textile artist,My stitching works relate to my past life and my life experience, it's about painful and suffer, which is from my motherland to other Asia countries, to Europe.What i saw i think, I transform them into each piece of my works, and in abstract way, it's about time, memory, about lightness and darkness, about appear and disappear, about control, uncontrol. I hope my work could touching you, the deep part of your heart which is normally you hide it.No matter where we are, where we from, west, east, there's something we have the same in our inside. Weakness is strength, and strong is nothing.
