

Yuan Chenchun

Yuan Chenchun is an ink artist from Taiwan, who studied in - World News University for film-making in 1974. After living in Taipei for a while, she moved from Taipei to Sanyi looking for inner peace and continue her art career. Ink could be either monochrome or colorful in her artworks. This female painter also takes painting as a ritual of Zen and her silent exercise.

1988- the modern pottery art teaching exhibit

1999- Yutengping, Humanities Flowering Exhibition

2004- Exhibition in Taipei Eastern Hospital

2006- contemporary calligraphy art Ya Ji

2008- 305 rows Taiwan Pavilion exhibition

2012- contemporary colourful Mo exhibition

2013- the modern poetry phrase announce

2015- live in the mountains to sing'publication

2015 - new poetry exhibition aqua Rene

2016 - "new ink Doctrine" Shanghai Art Museum Group Exhibitions

2016 - Taiwan Museum of Village Exhibition, wishlists

2017 - Shanghai Art Fair Exhibition

2017 - Hangzhou Jingjiang Art Museum