

FENG JIANG

With his unique taste in oil painting, artist Feng Jialiang has been invited to show his paintings in multiple international and national art shows and museums. From 1998 to 2015, he has been visiting Europe and USA several times as visiting scholars. He is now the Vice Dean of the college of art affiliated to Nanjing Normal University and the Vice Chief Executive of Jiangsu Oil Painting Association. His work always shows his one-of-a-kind interpretation of Chinese aesthetic in this western form of art- oil painting. He was invited to have his own individual exhibitions with his Buddha series and Portrait series in the US.
