

ZHUANG ZHONG

Artist Zhuang Zhong has been performing art since 1991. His works speak his own aesthetic towards the interpretation of the relationship between nature and human society. Many of his works have been seen in international auctions, prestigious art galleries and art shows, treasured by collectors around the globe. As the Dean of Jiangsu Institute of Sculptures and Oil Paintings, he devoted his time and energy not only to his personal artistic creations, but also the development of oil painting- this particular art form in China.
