Shin Eung

Shin Eung explores the vigor and potent spirit of horses—that do not crouch yet they are not predators. The horses that radiate tremendous energy and tackle obstacles inspired the artist. Her work embodies suppressed emotions and desires via the visual language of the mighty horse.

Note

In competitive society, modern-day individuals constantly deal with series of choices and decisions. They bear heavy burdens of responsibilities and duties in life. The artist incorporates robust horse that is brimful of strength into her work in order to deliver an optimistic message to contemporary viewers.

The power of the horse that prepares a leap to better future ahead is integral to the oeuvre. The artist's work transcends the limitations of the flat canvas. The use of three-dimensional objects in her work creates dynamism of vigorous horse jumping out of the canvas.
