Artworks Introduction:

Born in Gansu province, I am very familiar to the survival and educational status of the left-behind children and orphans. And I have often witnessed or heard stories of the left-behind children and orphans in recent years. So I had a desire to create works for the left-behind children and orphans.

This idea came to me a long time ago. I tried to express the bloom, the splendor and the glamor of the kids in my paintings. I hope that people can see innate deity from the kids. And then, maybe the artworks, conceived from children' s own stories, could arouse the society' s caring and love for the kids themselves telling.?

"Glow" Series is important to me, I hope that "Glow" series can reflect the social reality and let more people to shoulder the responsibility of caring for the next generation.

I believe, the kids are all born with deity.
