

Gallery Violet

Gallery VIOLET(director: Lee Yoonchan) opened its door in Insa-dong, Seoul, in March, 2010 with an aim of introducing the Korean contemporary art and finding and supporting new artists who have the potential to contribute to Korean culture and art. Focusing on the efforts to build bridges between art collectors and artists, it has run a variety of programs such as finding and supporting new artists and introducing great Korean artworks to the world. Located in Insa-dong, a center of Korean culture and art, Gallery VIOLET will try every effort to develop Korean art and culture.
